

Artist Statement

Titled: "No, You Are Out of Order"
Where I was in Court, being sentenced to Death at the age of 19 Years Old. It wasn't until many years later I heard Anti-Death Penalty Supporters ask WJTD to Pro-Death Penalty Supporters. I would bet he would scream at the Judges for what they're doing to "Their Brothers."
So I decided to make this piece about Art, Justice, Salvation, and Reflection. The light at the top shines to invite us to call on our beliefs and see them. My own opinion is we each have a light that shines if we simply take the opportunity to turn it on.

The color "Gray + Silver" are my prison environment. Our world is white, Gray and Stainless Steel. During my Years of life in Prison, I've created many types of Art, but none with so many messages. The Phone Booth is representative of the small space of my cell and having to call out of it Year after Year. My cell is a place to sleep, eat, create, study law, and seek out a way to keep Hope Alive. It's not easy, but it's possible, no matter where You are or what You face. After 26 Years of Facing Death, I believe in being stubborn to fuel my Art. Enjoy it! 1/1
